Regulator for UTI

3117. SHRI C. RAMACHANDRAIAH: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that presently there is no direct regulator for Unit Trust of India to keep its activities etc, within its parameters;

(b) if so, the reasons therefor indicating inter alia the mechanism to keep its activities particularly investment decision etc. within reasonable limits;

(c) whether in the wake of recent debacle in Unit Trust of India, Government are now actively considering a proposal to bring it under the purview of a regulator; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI BALASAHEB VIKHE PATIL): (a) The Unit Trust of India (UTI) is governed by the UTI Act, 1963 and UTI General Regulations. Under the UTI Act, UTI is managed by a Chairman and a Board of Trustees which supervises the functioning of UTI. UTI is not registered with the regulator, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) as a mutual fund. However, following the recommendation made by the Joint Parliamentary Committee constituted in 1993 to enquire into irregularities in securities and banking transactions, an arrangement of voluntary compliance with SEBI's regulations for schemes launched after July 1, 1994 was agreed to by UTI.

Accordingly, all post-lst July 1994 schemes of UTI came under the regulatory jurisdication of SEBI. UTI has been filing offer documents for new schemes with SEBI which communicates its observations for the purpose of adequate disclosures in the offer documents. As regards schemes launched before July 1, 1994, UTI has brought 12 schemes under the voluntary compliance arrangement during the period 1999-2001.
